

WANTS $7,000,000 FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

The San Francisco Chronicle of the 20th ult. says: May Barie, who is seeking through the courts to obtain recompense from George Wingfield, the Nevada millionaire, for failing to make good his alleged promise to marry her, has increased her demands to keep pace with her former consort's prosperity.

Where she originally claimed $250,000 for his failure to keep his promise and $500,000 for damages to her health, she lumps her damages under one cause of action and demands $7,000,000.

This was done in an amended complaint filed in the United States circuit court yesterday on account of the increased value of Wingfield's properties.

She alleges that at his solicitation at Tonopah, Nev., in 1902, she entered into marital relations with him and, under frequent promises of marriage on his part, continued such relations until August, 1908, when he married Miss Murdoch of San Francisco.

COMISKEY REFUSES TO HOLD STAKES

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Charley Comiskey, the local baseball magnate, who is named in the Johnson-Jeffries articles of agreement as stakeholder of the forfeits and side money, has refused to accept on the ground that he has too many troubles of his own. John T. Clark of San Francisco is favored by Sam Berger, but Johnson wants to know more about him before he will accept him.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

THE PASSING OF ANOTHER PIONEER

An old pioneer has passed to the other shore, Abner P. Gaines, who was the son of Governor John P. Gaines, territorial governor of Oregon in the year 1850. Abner P. Gaines was born in Kentucky and came to Oregon with his parents when he was a small boy.

He married Ellen Looney, daughter of Jesse Looney, the pioneer, and they settled at Springfield, Or., where they lived for several years. They raised a large family of children and their sons and daughters, most of them, live in Oregon.

About five years ago Abner Gaines moved to California, where he died August 4, at Collesgrove, near Los Angeles. He was buried in Hollywood cemetery August 7, 1909. His widow and seven sons and daughters survive him. He was about 75 years of age.
